In 2001 the same song was used in a Hollywood movie "Ghost World" sung by Herman during practice.

Did you know that all the famous Shammi Kapoor song dances were Choreographed by a Bene- Israel your man from Umer Khadi.

Herman Benjamin.

Herman Benjamin was a choreographer of dance numbers in various Bollywood movies from the late 1950s through to the early 1970s. Also known as "Harman", he started his career as a choreographer in the popular 1958 film Chalti Ka Naam Gaadi.

He choreographed a great number of movies featuring Shammi Kapoor. Herman's dances made Shammi Kapoor top popular Bollywood star.

He was known for the song "Hum Kaale hai to kya hua dilwaale hain".

Among his most well known songs is Jaan Pehechan Ho which he also performed onscreen for the hit 1965 film Gumnaam. The song gained international popularity 36 years later when it was featured in the opening scene of the American movie Ghost World in 2001

He was given an award for his work by Indian Film Dance Directors Association (IFDDA) on January 9, 2012. He had died in 1968 so his family took it.
